

Status of Nebraska Qualified Energy Conservation Bond Allocation

January 15, 2013

Nebraska Total	$18,502,000
Sub-allocations
Lincoln	$2,580,564 (Retained by city for use on UN-Lincoln Innovation Campus effluent heating/cooling system project)
Omaha	$4,403,737 (Waived back to the state)
Sarpy County	$1,522,502 (Waived back to the state)
Indian Tribal Governments	$309,322 (No final determination on use by tribal organizations)
Remainder of the state	$9,685,873 or $15,612,112 (including Omaha and Sarpy County sub-allocations)

Qualified Energy Conservation Bond Projects

To the city of Lincoln from State's $15,612,112 sub-allocation for the UN-Lincoln Innovation Campus effluent heating/cooling system project	$13,078,057
--	--------------

Unallocated $2,534,055

Requests for allocations of the remaining QECB allocation can be made by submitting to the allocating agency, the Nebraska Energy Office, a one or two page abstract of the proposed qualified project from the political subdivision that will be issuing the bonds and an opinion of qualified and experienced bond counsel that the bonds will qualify as eligible projects as defined by the U.S. Treasury, Internal Revenue Service.